From: Tina Stocking, Unit A Counselor

Subject: Hamedah Hasan # 13847-047

Ms. Hasan has been on my case load since December of 1994. During this time I have witnessed Ms. Hasan's personal, educational, and spiritual growth. She continually makes exceptional efforts towards self-improvement. As her Correctional Counselor, I have had the opportunity to help guide and direct Ms. Hasan towards her institutional and personal goals. Her programming while being incarcerated at FCI Dublin has been exceptional.

Ms. Hasan has been a role model among her peers and has been readily and willing to help whenever called upon. While Ms. Hasan worked as a Unit Orderly, she required no supervision and was very dependable. She continually gave in put to help improve and maintain the Unit's Sanitation. On several occasions she developed and implemented different forms to improve the unit's chemical supplies and unit wash list.

During the summer of 1997, Ms. Hasan volunteered to be the Unit's Softball Team Captain. Due to her organizational skills, and her ability to motivate others our unit placed 2nd place overall.

She continues to keep herself actively involved in several educational, spiritual and self-improvement courses. She has completed numerous Parenting Programs and Personal Growth workshops.

While being incarcerated at FCI Dublin she has not let her current sentence deter her from improving as a person or parent. Upon her release from incarceration she will be a productive member of society.
